

Don Bell

Don has dedicated his life to serving and uplifting North Vancouver, leaving an indelible mark on our community's tapestry. With a distinguished career in public service, he has held multiple pivotal roles—serving as Alderman, Councillor, and Mayor for the District of North Vancouver, as well as Trustee and Chair of the North Vancouver School Board. Don further extended his leadership as a Board Member and Vice-Chair of the Greater Vancouver Regional District (GVRD) and represented North Vancouver as a Member of Parliament. Today, his commitment continues as he serves as a Councillor for the City of North Vancouver, consistently working to better the lives of local residents.

Beyond his governmental roles, Don has been a passionate advocate for community enrichment and inclusivity. He contributed his expertise as a former member of the Tourism Vancouver Board and played a key part on the original 2010 Winter Olympics Bid Committee.

His dedication to sports and youth development is evident in his service as Honorary Chair for the BC Special Olympics, his life memberships with the BC Youth Soccer Association and the Canadian Soccer Alumni, and his role as Honorary Director of BC Wheelchair Sports. Additionally, as President of a Metro Vancouver area Senior's Social Club, Don demonstrated his commitment to all generations. Recognized for his distinguished service with the Freedom of the District of North Vancouver Award in 2008, the Canada 125 Medal, and the Queen Elizabeth Silver Jubilee Medal, Don's achievements and unwavering dedication continue to inspire and shape North Vancouver.
